

Life on Fort Wayne's Rivers

Indiana Animals

Complete the crossword puzzle below

Vocab:
 Plankton
 Phytoplankton
 Watershed
 Invasive
 Non Invasive
 Native
 Species
 Groundwater
 Runoff
 Water Table

Across

- 4. If you hear a distant 'hammering' noise, it might be this bird looking for ants in tree bark.
- 6. This insect glides from flower to flower and has big, beautiful wings.
- 8. This bird has very long legs and a very long beak.

Down

- 1. You've probably seen this little animal with a big bushy tail running up and down trees, finding nuts to eat.
- 2. This insect has four wings that are mostly clear and lives near the water.
- 3. This mammal has a large tail and big front teeth used to chew down trees to make their home.
- 5. The males and females of this type of bird look very different, with the males having a green band of feathers around their n
- 7. This animal mostly lives in rivers, but you can often see them on logs getting some sun.

Indiana Rivers Watershed

Using the map, answer the following questions:

1. What three rivers meet in Fort Wayne?

2. What major great lake do rivers from Fort Wayne flow to?

3. What three states are in the same watershed system?

4. What ocean do you think Fort Wayne waters flow to?

- A. Pacific B. Atlantic C. Arctic D. Indian